Ultrafast Optics XII (2019) Sponsorship Opportunities

We are pleased to announce the dates and location for the next Ultrafast Optics conference, the 12th in the series. In keeping with the long tradition of hosting UFO in special locations, we are delighted to invite you to the beautiful town of Bol on the island of Brač, the Croatian tourist champion for more than 60 years. We are offering several sponsorship opportunities that will enhance your company's profile among the conference attendees, who will include the world leaders and rising stars in the field of ultrafast laser sources and applications.

All sponsors will have their name and logo listed on the UFO XII website <http://ultrafastoptics2019.org> and displayed prominently on signage around the workshop venue for sponsored events.

Conference Tabletop Exhibit

€2,000

Sponsors are invited to set up their tabletop exhibit in a dedicated area of the conference venue that will also be the location where coffee breaks and poster sessions will be held. The Tabletop Exhibit sponsorship includes 1 technical registration.

Sunday Welcome Reception Refreshments

€5,000

This will be the welcome event for all attendees arriving to the conference. Immediately following the popular short courses on Sunday, we will host a reception including an open bar with wine, beer, cocktails, and appetizers in the conference area of the hotel. Make a strong first impression among attendees by sponsoring this social event to kick-off the conference. Support will be acknowledged with signage in the reception area, on the workshop website, and a table to display company materials will be provided, if desired.

Poster Session Refreshments

€5,000

Two widely attended poster sessions will be held on Monday, October 7 and Tuesday, October, 8 and will showcase the work of attendees. The events feature beer, wine, and light appetizers and are open to all conference attendees. Support will be acknowledged with signage at the event as well as on the workshop website.

Wednesday Group Excursion€8,000

The island of Brac and the surrounding area offer many attractions, including some of the most beautiful natural surroundings, picturesque towns, and gastronomical experiences. At this time we are considering several different excursions, including the old winery tour, a boat tour of the surrounding area, and the tour of the island.

Wednesday Group Dinner€5,000

This social event will provide time for attendee networking and socializing. The event features beer, wine and regional food from Croatian islands. Support will be acknowledged with signage at the event as well as on the workshop website.

Thursday Conference Banquet€5,000

This conference banquet will be the capstone social event of the conference. We are planning for a fun evening of food, drink, entertainment, and celebration. The event will be held at a beach restaurant directly adjacent to the hotel. Support will be acknowledged with signage at the event as well as on the workshop website.

Plenary Talk €1,500

Support will be acknowledged at the introduction of the plenary talks as well as on the conference website.

Coffee Breaks €1,500

A coffee & refreshment break is held each morning and each afternoon in the hotel.

Attendees greatly appreciate these refreshments between sessions. Signage acknowledging support will be placed at the coffee and refreshments station.
